GREAT Program

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

Graduate Recruitment, Enhancement, And Travel (GREAT) Program

The GREAT Program provides supplemental funding for Texas A&M doctoral students with multi-year national fellowships and federal training grant fellowships to create financial packages competitive with the nation's top universities.

Supplements combined with fellowship funding would provide, for up to five years, total packages consisting of:

- | $3,000 monthly stipend
- | Full tuition and required university and college fees
- | Student health insurance
- | Annual $1,500 scholarship for professional development
- | Participation in research leadership and mentoring development programs

#6 in the nation

for the number of doctoral degrees earned

#5 in Life Sciences

#11 in Education

#4 in Engineering

#12 in Physical & Earth Sciences

-NSF Survey of Earned Doctorates, 2020

Find a list of eligible fellowships and more details about the GREAT program at grad.tamu.edu/GREAT

Provides supplemental funding to eligible:

- nationally competitive external fellowships awarded to students,
- federal training grant fellowships awarded to faculty or departments, and
- federal research grant supplements awarded to faculty to promote diversity.
